Standing At Armageddon: United States, 1877-1919

Nell Irvin Painter

Prohibition: Women like this would come together because they were against alcohol and drinking. They would make up mottos like Lips that touch liquor shall.